Carly most recently appeared in the 2017 Hallmark Channel crime movie A BUNDLE OF TROUBLE: AN AURORA TEAGARDEN MYSTERY, starring Candace Cameron Bure, as well as A FOOL AND HIS HONEY: AN AURORA TEAGARDEN MYSTERY in which she plays the supporting character of "Rita." Carly starred in TRIPLE DOG, which is directed by Paschal Franchot. It stars Carly, Brit Robertson and Scout Taylor Compton, joined by J.D. Robb and Joseph Nasser as producers. Carly also appeared in an episode of MOTIVE, created by Daniel Cerone for ABC. She played "Alice" in the Canadian Series ALICE I THINK, produced by Omni Film Productions in Canada and Slanted Wheel Entertainment in the US for CTV. Her other television credits include a recurring role on the ABC series LIFE AS WE KNOW IT, produced by Sach/Judah Productions with Kelly Osbourne, Jon Foster, Missy Peregrym and Sean Faris starring; and roles on episodics and MOW's including: THE BIONIC WOMAN, JUST A PHASE, SCHOOL OF LIFE, JACK, and BREAKING NEWS (PILOT).

On the music side, Carly and her sister Britt are known as "One More Girl." They call Vancouver, BC their home and spent much of 2010 working on their music and accumulating an impressive list of credits despite their young age. The Calgary Stampede, the Merritt Mountain Music Festival and Canadian Country Music week are among the many events they've performed at, opening for artists such as Dwight Yoakam, Darius Rucker (Hootie & The Blowfish) and Keith Urban. In addition to receiving 2005, 2006, and 2007 'Group of the Year' nominations from the B.C. Country Music Association, the girls took home the prestigious 'Horizon Award' for the Best New Artist of 2009; and in March 2010, One More Girl took home the prestigious Canadian Radio Music Award for 'Best New Country Artist'.
