Danielle Savre was born with a passion for the performing arts. This Southern California native has a deep understanding of the industry and has performed as an actress, singer and producer. Currently she is portraying a Seattle firefighter as one of the lead roles in ABC's STATION 19. Danielle's passion for this character runs deep, as her sister Stephanie is one of the 93 female LAFD firefighters.

She gained attention early on for her stand out roles in NBC's smash hit HEROES and the lead in MTV's first scripted series KAYA. She starred in CW's SUPERNATURAL spin off, BLOODLINES, and in the RJ Cutler directed pilot FOUR STARS for CBS. Most recently Danielle played the lead of Tyler Perry's TOO CLOSE TO HOME for 2 seasons. Other notable performances include her multi-episode arc in BLUE BLOODS, BRING IT ON: ALL OR NOTHING and BOOGEYMAN 2. She recently completed lead roles in several independent films including the Black List screenplay ADULTERERS and WILD ABOUT HARRY, which won the Best Of The Fest Award at the Palm Springs International Film Festival.

Danielle produced several short films, including Jeff Betancourt's award-winning film KNOCK KNOCK, which premiered at SXSW and has played at 30 festivals worldwide. She also received a Best Supporting Actress nomination for her role in Rowan Maher's short film COLLAR from the California Women's Film Festival.
